

TREASURE VALLEY CLASSICAL ACADEMY

Classics Teacher (Latin and History) (Upper School)

Treasure Valley Classical Academy is seeking a well-qualified faculty member to teach ancient history (Greece and Rome) and Latin. Candidates should have a strong background in the classical liberal arts and in Latin and perhaps Greek. An ideal candidate will have demonstrable knowledge in related subjects, including ancient history (Greece and Rome) and classical literature, and may have experience teaching at a classical school. Familiarity with Wheelock's Latin or similar curriculum is desirable.

Treasure Valley Classical Academy is a tuition-free, public charter school that will serve students in grade K-9 for the 2022-2023 academic year and grow a grade each year to become a K-12 school. The curriculum in the elementary school consists of explicit phonics in spelling and reading; grammar via traditional methods of instruction; the Core Knowledge sequence (not to be confused with Common Core) in literature, history, and science; Singapore math; and Latin and Greek roots. Daily study in Latin will be required from the seventh to eighth grade, and another year of Latin is mandatory in the high school. Great books and Socratic discussion commence in the upper elementary school. The upper-school curriculum centers on the reading and discussion of great books in literature, primary sources in history, and on a thorough understanding of both the facts and the concepts in mathematics and the sciences. The study of art and music is required K-8, and art and music electives are offered as well. To graduate, all seniors must write a senior thesis and deliver and defend it orally in front of fellow students, members of the faculty, and the principal. Teachers are hired based upon their mastery of academic disciplines and their capacity for conveying knowledge to young people. Treasure Valley Classical Academy is a Hillsdale College member school and part of the Barney Charter School Initiative at Hillsdale College.

Interested candidates should go to the employment page on the school's website (www.tvcademy.org) to apply. Certification for teachers is required in Idaho, though not necessary for initial hire. The school will work with teachers who require certification in order to complete this process within the initial 3-year teaching term.

Applicants should send a cover letter, a statement of educational philosophy (500 words or less), a resume or curriculum vitae, and college transcripts (unofficial acceptable initially). Questions should be addressed to the principal, Mr. Stephen Lambert at hr@tvacademy.org.

Teaching candidates must understand and support the mission of Treasure Valley Classical Academy.
